

Preservation Plan for the Town of Bolton

Prepared for the Bolton Historical Commission by Alfred J. Lima, Planning Consultant

1998

Acknowledgements

The consultant wishes to thank the citizens of the Town of Bolton for their assistance in preparing the Bolton Preservation Plan. In particular, Linda Brown Engelmann, Chair of the Bolton Historical Commission, has been invaluable as the local project coordinator during the preparation of the plan. Her ongoing assistance, thoughtful comments and detailed reviews of drafts have helped to assure that the final report will be a useful planning document for the town. Bolton Historical Commission members Susy Becker, Iris Berdrow, Roland A. Ochsenein and Susan Tripp were enormously helpful in contributing to the preparation of the plan through their comments, review of drafts and assistance with the two public forums.

Among the many other Bolton residents who assisted in the preparation of the plan, the consultant especially wishes to thank Kenneth Troup, Bolton Selectman; Nancy Reed, Bolton Assessor and former Selectman; Bonnie Potter, President of the Bolton Conservation Trust; Steven Barrett, member of the Bolton Conservation Commission; and Timothy Fiehler, President of the Bolton Historical Society. Their comments during the preparation of the plan and their review of drafts have been invaluable.

An essential resource referenced during the preparation of the Bolton Preservation Plan was the Bolton Survey of Historical, Architectural and Cultural Resources. The survey was prepared by Anne McCarthy Forbes during the same period that the preservation plan was in preparation. The Bolton Preservation Plan has benefited enormously from the survey's depth and quality of historical and architectural information and from Ms. Forbes reviews of the drafts of the plan.

Finally, the consultant is grateful to the excellent staff of the Massachusetts Historical Commission for their high degree of professionalism and helpful assistance during the preparation of the plan. Special thanks are due to Christopher C. Skelly, Director of Local Government Programs Elsa N. Fitzgerald, Assistant Director, and Brian Knight.
